

DO THE WAGGLE

Honeybees communicate by dancing. Their dance is sometimes called the waggle. They dance and tell the other bees where to find the nectar. The nectar is what the bees get from the flowers to make their honey with. This bee missed the dancing show. Please, help her find her way to some flowers.

